New Road Appeal will be in East Hagbourne Pavilion

The dates for the appeal hearing on Grainger's application to build on the Green Gap have been set as 10th-13th January and the hearing will be open to the public.

More information at www.mindthegreengap.org

Pavilion Car Park

As you will have seen, good progress is being made on the improvements to the Pavilion car park. We apologise for any inconvenience during the works, but look forward to the new all-weather surface

Neighbourhood Plan Progress

The Steering Group is making good progress in formulating draft policies for the Plan. Once we have our input it will be reviewed by Community First Oxfordshire before sharing with the wider community. All discussions are documented at

<http://easthagbourneplan.net/>

Thames Valley Police Alerts

Please see information elsewhere in this issue about how you can receive police alerts on any suspicious activity in the neighbourhood

Free Health and Wellbeing taster for over 60s

Go Active GOLD is an initiative from the District Council to encourage older folk to take regular exercise and to provide some financial support for these activities. There will be a free session in East Hagbourne Pavilion on Wednesday 18th January where you can try out some of the activities.

Booking is essential: Annalie Thomasson 07717 346351
