NEWSLETTER No.151 – February 2017

	New Road Appeal The appeal by Graingers against SODCs refusal of planning permission for the Green Gap is now completed and we must await the decision of the Inspector, which will take several weeks. Whatever the outcome, though, East Hagbourne can be proud of the way our case was presented, by our legal experts, by Mind the Green Gap and by all those residents who participated, commented and spoke throughout this long planning procedure. Such a large attendance all through an appeal hearing is very unusual - it shows the commitment and passion that local people have for our village. Special recognition is due to the Mind the Green Gap team, led by Nick Wright and Andy Barmer. Their knowledge, skill and energy really were the driving force behind our case. Without them our position could not have been presented nearly as strongly. East Hagbourne Parish Council Salutes You! You can still follow progress at www.mindthegreengap.org
	Exercise for over 60s The Go Active GOLD taster session on 18th January went well with 13 people doing Zumba Gold and Nordic walking. The team are working on follow-up sessions and more information will be available in the March magazine. More information from Annalie Thomasson 07717 346351, annalie.thomasson@southandvale.gov.uk
	Neighbourhood Plan Progress http://easthagbourneplan.net/ Our consultants Jeremy Lake and Steven Warnock are working hard on a Character Assessment for the parish, with extensive input from local people. This will form the basis for how each land parcel in and around the village is assessed in the NP. There will be a public meeting to review Character Assessment on Monday 20th February at 7:30pm in East Hagbourne Pavilion.
	Parish Council We are pleased to announce the co-option of Sarah Beynon to the Parish Council at our 19th January meeting. We still have one vacancy and would welcome more help with management and promotion of the Pavilion as well. Please contact the Clerk or any councillor.
	Pavilion Car Park This new car park is now in operation and the pile of soil should have been removed as you read this. The surface is still sandy until the final tidy-up and grass seeding is carried out, so we ask you to wipe feet carefully as you enter the Pavilion.
