Rector's Reflections A Special Day

Do you have anything planned for Wednesday 17th February?

You might well be thinking to yourself: why the 17th February? What's so special about the 17th February?

Well, this year 17th February is the day on which Lent starts. Lent always starts on a Wednesday, 40 days before Easter. The date of Easter varies from year to year, and so the date of Ash Wednesday varies accordingly. You will doubtless know why it is called Ash Wednesday, and the fact that this comes from the tradition of attending a church service on this day and receiving the mark of the cross on our forehead. The mark is made from ash, and there is another tradition of making this ash from the palm crosses which have been kept from the previous year.

Why do Christians do this? In part it's about recognising that we all fall short. We all need to say sorry to God and ask for God's help to change things for the better. The sign of the cross is a way of saying sorry to God and asking for his help. It's a visual expression of spiritual humility - the humility to accept that we're not perfect, and that we need to change.

But the sign of the Cross is also a way of focussing on Jesus, and the significance of his life, death and resurrection. For the last 2000 years, Christians have believed that through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ we can receive God's gift of new life. This has been the experience of countless millions of Christians down the centuries. Theologians have used various words and theories to describe this experience of new life in Jesus. Sometimes people use words such as "atonement" or "justification" or "salvation". The words used are, ultimately, neither here nor there. The key thing is the reality of new life, which is given to us as gift from God, and experienced through a relationship with Jesus Christ.

And so the sign of the cross isn't just about saying sorry to God, important though this is. It's also about acknowledging that through Jesus we receive the gift of a new beginning.

The 40 days of Lent which begin on Ash Wednesday is a time when, once again, we prepare ourselves to receive God's gift of new life. I wonder what this might mean for us this year? Fr Jason

Fairtrade Fortnight 2021 Monday 22nd February to March 7th

With the next UN Climate Summit taking place in Glasgow in November 2021, it is critical we all make sure producers' voices are heard in the UK and beyond.

That is why the Fairtrade Foundation is part of the Climate Coalition, a group of over 130 organisations across the UK, working towards a truly green and sustainable world.

Fairtrade farmers are among the people who have contributed the least to climate crisis – but are already feeling the worst effects. 21 people from Cote d'Ivoire have the same carbon footprint as one person in the UK, but studies have shown that Africa is the continent most vulnerable to climate change.

Tackling climate change is at the heart of the FAIRTRADE movement, as it threatens the livelihoods of those we are working to protect. You can hear from Fairtrade farmers on the Fairtrade website:

<https://www.fairtrade.org.uk/get-involved/current-campaigns/fairtrade-and-climate-justice/>

So, when you're out shopping look for the Fairtrade Mark and know that you're supporting farmers and workers to protect themselves against the climate crisis.

Our local Community Shop will have a display of Fairtrade items during the fortnight.

Fairtrade is more than a Mark on a product. It's a call for change.

HUGS February brown bin advice

As the pandemic affects our council garden waste collection, we thought we'd share some tips on composting with you. Might make a good, lockdown half-day project in the garden, whatever the weather!

There are many benefits to home composting; it's greener than having it taken away, it's great to have a free source of mulch/compost to use in the garden and you're helping wildlife too. So, how to get started?

First, choose where to do your composting. A shady /semi-shady area is good – perhaps a corner of the garden?

Then, what to compost in?

Log Tower in progress

Wildlife, including owls, would be very happy with an open compost heap somewhere they can access it. If this isn't an option and you're short of space, there are many options including building your own with recycled wood or buy a kit made from recycled plastic or FSC wood.

Next, if you can, place the compost bin on bare earth and then ideally add quite a lot of material in one go to get it started. From there, try to layer in green waste (leaves / grass) with brown layers (brush wood /cardboard). Check that air can get into the heap and not too much rain gets in at the top. Then once a month turn everything over, being very careful not to disturb any wildlife you find. And depending on the size of the heap, six months later, you may be ready to use your compost as a fantastic mulch for your garden. More info here from the RSPB - <https://www.rspb.org.uk/get-involved/activities/give-nature-a-home-in-your-garden/garden-activities/startcomposting/>

And if you have bigger branches to dispose of, then consider building a log tower (try stacking material between 4 upright posts) or use it as a log pile in a corner of your garden. Either way, you're creating fantastic habitat for wildlife. If the tower is tall enough, robins may nest in the top in a gap between large logs, butterflies may choose to hibernate in there, frogs may move into the area under the stack and a huge variety of invertebrates will love the rotting wood as habitat and food.

Happy composting! p.s. other news - there's a consultation now open about the closed road in Upton, part of cycle route 544

Happy 'Special' Birthday Many Happy Returns to Gillian Harries on your special Birthday on the 18th February with much love from your family and very best wishes from all your friends and neighbours. Have a great day.

HAMS.....looking back

With the changes in Covid Tier restrictions leading to the current lockdown situation, and no end in sight for any relaxation of them in the near term, it has been difficult to look forward to any new projects/plays/reviews that we might immerse ourselves in with any certainty for the next few months.

The ODN Winter Festival gave us the opportunity to try out new techniques using digital and online technology, resulting in us submitting four new entries to the festival. It also gave us the opportunity to draw breath and look back through our previous productions.

Why would we want to do that, you may ask?

One of the categories for the festival was a short 'retrospective' entry, showcasing the work of the group. HAMS has plenty of retrospective material to choose from: eleven full plays and the popular Nonsense evenings, but we thought that one scene from a play, rather than editing short clips from several plays would give a better idea of what HAMS can do.

After a fond look back at our earliest productions, we chose Alice in Wonderland from March 2013. Many of our members, and hopefully some readers of this magazine may remember it.

Looking back through the video we were reminded of the contributions made by the late John Lawson, Muriel and John Stanley. They were bright lights in so many ways and are greatly missed.

Who could forget Pat Napper's performance as the Dodo or Betty Parker's brilliant sleepy Dormouse?

It was difficult to select a ten-minute extract, but we went for the Mad Hatter's Tea Party in the end, which still makes us laugh some eight years on. Have a look for yourself: click on the link, here, to watch the video.

We hope you enjoy this snippet from one of our favourite productions. We had lots of fun!

Comments from the East Hagbourne Parish Council Chairman

Communicating Information

The current moratorium on the collection of brown bins for garden refuse by the District Council and the number of brown bins that were on the street at the last green+brown collection date made me realize that we have to improve communication on such things. For the bins, there were several messages on the village facebook page, but I fully appreciate that many people do not use facebook. Also, some people may have facebook accounts for family communication but not for accessing the village web pages on <https://www.facebook.com/groups/easthagbourne/>

I thus return to a suggestion that I made over a year ago for the emailing of information from the Parish Council to those who sign up on an mailchimp list. An easy to complete form is available on village web site or directly by going to <https://mailchi.mp/9791c642ed24/ehpc>. Please note that your email will not be shared with any other people or used for purposes other than sending communications from the Parish Council.

The plan is that any postings on Facebook from the Clerk of the Parish Council will also be sent to the email list.

Dog Fouling

A major topic of discussion on the village facebook pages concerns the amount of dog waste on village paths and grass areas. Although it is very bad and fully worthy of the outrage and condemnation in the facebook posts, it is very much a minority of dog owners who are responsible. The fact that there is more waste than before is a reflection on the greater number of dog walkers since lockdown. In fact, the dog bins that the Parish Council have installed are often full when the weekly emptying takes place so much so that the Council is in the process of increasing the size of a bin and adding an additional bin. The cost of maintaining and emptying the bins is quite high although one might shudder at the situation without this provision.

The District Council have confirmed that it is an offence to leave dog waste and that on the spot fines can be levied in a similar way to fines for littering. There is a notice on the Parish page of this newsletter concerning dog bins.

Housing Development by the Village Hall

The latest information that we have on the submitted plans for the building of 74 houses on the field by the Village Hall are that the Case Officer, Penny Silverwood, is consulting the drainage team at SODC about issues raised by the Parish Council and an online survey of the drains conducted by the developers.

Support from SODC

A list of village based support is given in the Parish page of this newsletter. There is also support available from the District Council. SODC's Community Hub continues to be available to help people access support and essentials during the lockdown if they have nobody else to turn to. Anyone who needs support can fill in an online form at: southoxon.gov.uk/communityhub or email communitysupport@southandvale.gov.uk or call 01235 422600.

There is also support from SODC for people if, because of the pandemic, they are at risk of being made homeless or sleeping rough. For details on this, visit southoxon.gov.uk/housing. SODC are also making sure everyone is aware that support is available to residents who are experiencing financial difficulties. To find out more please visit southoxon.gov.uk/benefits .

Parish Meetings

The Parish Council will continue to hold Parish Council meetings on-line and, as in normal times, members of the public are welcome to join the meeting through the Zoom link that will be included on the agenda. The next meeting will be held starting at 7.30pm on Thursday 18th February.

I have cancelled my face-to-face surgeries but am very willing to talk on the telephone or online with any parishioner. You can get details of how to do this by phoning 07891 551851 or emailing the Parish Clerk easthagbourneparishcouncil@gmail.com.

Let me remind you that this is not a formal or even approved article from the Parish Council but is rather a few words from me. Thus anything in this article should not be construed as coming from or endorsed by the Parish Council.

Citizens Advice needs volunteer advisers

We can all face problems that are too stressful or complicated to sort out alone. In 2019 our 150 volunteers advised over 11,000 people. We helped three quarters resolve their debt, benefits, employment and housing problems.

We now need more advisers to help us during and after the Covid-19 crisis.

Our main offices are in Abingdon, Didcot, Henley and Thame. Since March 2020, 90 volunteers and staff have been advising the public from home on our Adviceline service. Recently we partially re-opened our offices, in part to train new advisers.

What will you get out of it? You will join a friendly team, meet new people, develop your skills and make a real difference to people's lives.

You'll need to have good listening and interpersonal skills, a willingness to learn and be confident with computers. Full training will be provided.

If you have eight hours a week to spare for the next two years or more and are looking for a satisfying and stimulating volunteer role in your local community, please contact us at:

www.citizensadvice.org.uk/local/oxfordshire-south-vale/volunteer/

DOG WASTE BINS

A big thank you to all those who pick up after their dog.

Dog fouling is a concern not just because of the mess it causes, but because of the health risk particularly from toxocara parasites which can cause serious illness in adults and children. The Parish Council is playing its part in providing suitable collection facilities. We will shortly be installing a new bin at the entry to Wilcher Close and putting a larger bin at the heavily used Butts Piece location. All bins are emptied weekly. Dog waste can also be put into the general public litter bins, but please, no rubbish in the dog bins.

Pease help us keep all our footpaths, pavements and other public areas clean.

CEMETERY PARKING – A POLITE REMINDER

The layby in front of the cemetery is intended for use by cemetery visitors only. It is increasingly being used by others including walkers due to its proximity to the railway line access steps, but this causes issues when the layby is needed for official use by funeral directors or contractors. All visitors should park in the village hall car park unless they are genuinely visiting the cemetery. Keep an eye out for the new signage which is being installed in the layby very soon.

Tower Talk The tower is still silent along with many others in the country as sadly we cannot ring together due to the current lockdown. John Napper, our Tower Keeper, is kindly keeping an eye on the bells and also the church clock.

There was no Churn Ringing Outing this year but we all hope that things will be different very soon and we can all get together again and enjoy the fellowship that ringing brings.

A few of our band ring at St Mary's, Long Wittenham on a regular basis, where the bells were removed in mid-January to be given a good overhaul at Whites of Appleton. This has been spearheaded by Julia, one of the Long Wittenham ringers and she has raised a lot of money to enable this to be done. Hopefully, when the bells are returned, we will be able to ring them again. Some of you may have seen the photographs that Jill posted on Facebook.

Astronomy Notes

The Candy Nebula

This is my very latest image. We had a couple of clear nights last week, after a long spell of clouds. So I had to brave the cold, and make the most of it. NGC (New General catalogue) 2371. Also known as the "Double Bubble Nebula", the "Peanut Nebula", the "Ant Nebula", or my favourite - "The Candy Nebula".

It does look very much like a sweet wrapper. It is a fine example of the remnant of a dying star. Created when a star that is near the end of its life, throws off its outer layers of gas into space. Forming an expanding shell, while the star itself slowly cools to become a white dwarf.

At a distance of 4,300 light years, it measures 3 light years across, which makes it one of the largest examples of this type of object we know of. The central star which was once similar to our Sun. currently has a surface temperature of 130,000 degrees, some 25 times hotter than the surface of our Sun, and shines at least 700 times brighter.

Shrove Tuesday, Pancake Day – 16th February

Ever wonder why we eat pancakes just before Lent? The tradition dates back to Anglo-Saxon times, when Christians spent Lent in repentance and severe fasting.

So on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, the church bell would summon them to confession, where they would be 'shriven', or absolved from their sins, which gives us Shrove Tuesday. At home, they would then eat up their last eggs and fat, and making a pancake was the easiest way to do this. For the next 47 days, they pretty well starved themselves.

Pancakes feature in cookery books as far back as 1439, and the tradition of pancake races are in remembrance of a panicked woman back in 1445 in Olney, Buckinghamshire. She was making pancakes when she heard the shriving bell calling her to confession. Afraid she'd be late, she ran to the church in a panic, still in her apron, and still holding the pan. We used to have pancake races in Hagbourne – maybe when the virus is gone we could revive the tradition?

Flipping pancakes is also centuries old. A poem from Pasquil's Palin in 1619 runs: "And every man and maide doe take their turne, And tosse their Pancakes up for feare they burne."

Some people have noted that the ingredients of pancakes can be used to highlight four significant things about this time of year: eggs stand for creation, flour is the staff of life, while salt keeps things wholesome, and milk stands for purity.

Shrove Tuesday is always 47 days before Easter Sunday and falls between 3rd February and 9th March.

Some Fundraising Ideas . . .

Stamps!

I am continuing the tradition of saving used stamps for charity, so if you have any, please leave them in the back of the St Andrew's (if, and when you can) or drop them off to me at home and I will make good use of them.

and Tins!

If you were given (or have acquired) a nice-looking tin and you don't know what to do with it, will you please pass it my way? I am hoping to have a "tin" sale to raise funds for the church some time, when we are allowed to do such things. I am not sure what I shall put in the tins yet, maybe cakes or biscuits (handmade) or sweets? Please pass them to me as above if you feel you can spare them that is. Thank you.
